

Dunsinane is award-winning playwright David Greig's vision of one man's attempt to restore peace in a country ravaged by war.

5

PHOTO COURTESY NATIONAL THEATRE OF SCOTLAND

EVENTS NOT TO MISS

Genius and Grace: François Boucher and the Generation of 1700 ■■■

JAN. 23–APRIL 5
ackland.org

View more than 75 master drawings by a group of artists born around 1700. One of the most notable inclusions from the Boston-based Horvitz Collection is François Boucher and nearly 20 works from throughout his distinguished career. Free admission.

Dunsinane ■■■

JAN. 29, 7:30PM AND JAN. 30, 8PM
carolinaperformingarts.org

Performed by the National Theatre of Scotland and the Royal Shakespeare Company, this play from award-winning playwright David Greig is the brilliant reimagining of what happens when Shakespeare's Macbeth ends. Tickets $19 and up.

N.C. Comedy Arts Festival ■■■

FEB. 3-15
nccomedyarts.com

Have some laughs during this comedy event that's known all over the state as a cultural institution. Buy tickets to see both recognized and up-and-coming acts perform stand-up, improv and sketch comedy. See website for ticket information.

Valentine's Day Indoor Tailgate ■■■

SAT. FEB. 14, 11AM-2:30PM
tastetheevent.com

Treat your sweetheart to an afternoon of watching UNC vs. Pitt on the big screen in The Great Room at Top of the Hill. In true tailgate style, there will be TOPO Distillery tastings and plenty of delicious food. Tickets $50/person or $95/couple.

Writers for Readers ■■■

TUE. FEB. 17, 4-7PM
orangeliteracy.org

Support Orange Literacy's fundraising efforts to make reading available to all. The annual event features conversations with the children of writers who are themselves writers (like Molly Jong-Fast, daughter of Erica Jong) at the Friday Center. Tickets start at $100. CHM